Appraisal of Content: 3.

1. On 10 February 1955 Dr. Wilhelm Voss' contract was renewed for one year with no changes in salary and allowances. However, he will no longer be an adviser to the Ministry of War, but, with his concurrence, has been assigned as personal adviser to the Minister of Commerce and Industry.
2. Apparently Dr. Voss intends to remain in Egypt permanently as he and his children are making a serious study of Arabic and he is gradually bringing all his personal effects to Cairo from Germany.
3. Dr. Voss has stated that he intends to establish an import-export office in Cairo which would employ a number of Egyptian engineers and technicians but all the important posts would be firmly in German hands. Dr. Voss also plans to request Minister 'Abd-al-Hakim Amir for permission for the German advisers employed by the Ministry of War to assist him in his office.
